Recent residence - Rots Its privileged climate, the beauty of its coastline with the Lérins Islands and its famous International Film Festival, its prestigious and luxury hotels and boutiques, or simply the well-being that must be found, Cannes is an internationally renowned destination. . The hinterland with Mougins, Mouans-sartoux, Grasse, Cabris, Peymeinade, Gourdon, Tourettes-sur-Loup, Valbonne, Biot, Vence and Saint Paul de Vence...) are magnificent walks to do around Cannes. - Le Suquet Le SuquetThe hill of Le Suquet is the cradle of Cannes. We advise you to start your visit with the old town. You can access the old town by different routes, on steep roads intertwined with winding and picturesque stairs where the pedestrian is king. Visit the ramparts, the Caste Museum, the Tour Carrée and the church. Admire the view of the city, the port, the Croisette and the Lérins Islands. At the foot of the old town stretches the bay of Cannes with the Forville market and its typical local shops (butchers, delicatessens, fishmongers,
